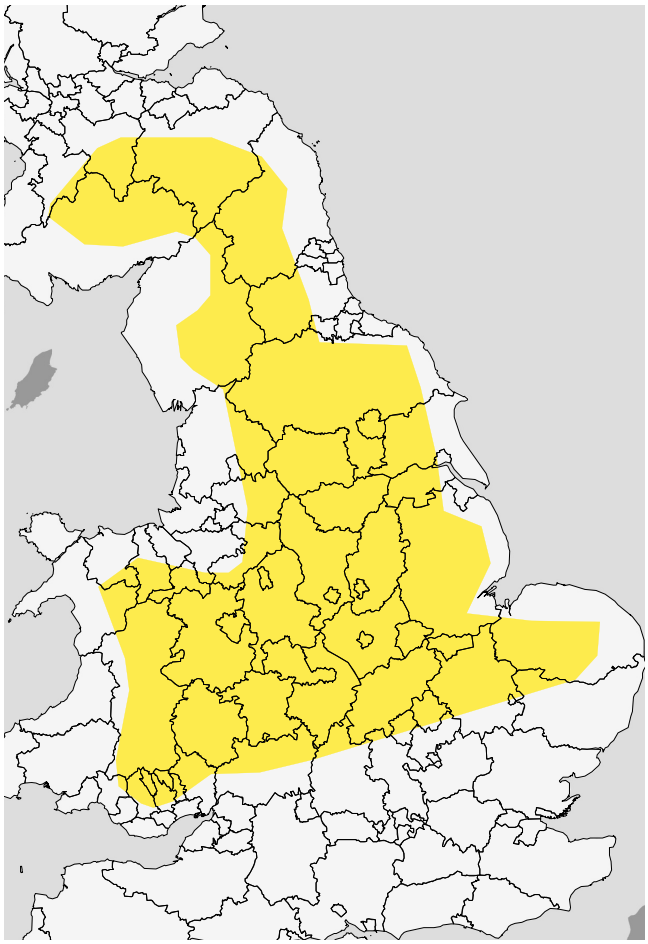
Yellow warning
Snow

Between
00:15 Mon 2 Apr 2018 and
23:45 Mon 2 Apr 2018



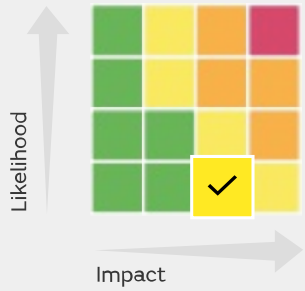
Possibility of heavy snow over parts of England, Wales and southern Scotland, especially for high ground. Travel may be affected.

What to expect

- There is a small chance of travel delays on roads with some stranded vehicles and passengers, along with delayed or cancelled rail and air travel
- There is a slight chance that some rural communities could become cut off
- There is a small chance that power cuts will occur and other services, such as mobile phone coverage, may be affected

Further details

As a weather system moves in from the south and comes up against cold air over the UK, there is the chance that rain could turn to heavy snow in places. Several cm of snow are possible, especially over hills, with drifting in strong winds. There is also the possibility of a few cm of wet snow gathering at lower levels. At present the extent and amounts of any snow are very uncertain, and it is quite possible that snow might not be too disruptive.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
